

TDG Program/Project Management (PPM) Overview Course

This course involves a lecture segment plus case studies and a facilitated workshop. It is tailored to the participants needs to refresh and reinforce PM skills and increase integrative focus. PPM Overview is taught as a 4 or 4.5 day course and is worth 32 or 36 PMI Professional Development Units (PDUs) accordingly. The PMI R.E.P. program number for this course is PM0040.

Application areas include (but are not limited to):

- Aerospace and Defense
- Design Procurement Construction
- Financial Services
- Government
- Manufacturing
- New Product Development
- Quality in Project Management
- Service and Outsourcing
- Troubled Projects
- Automotive
- Diversity
- Global Communications Technologies
- Information Systems
- Marketing and Sales
- Oil, Gas, Petrochemical
- Risk Management
- Students of PM
- Utility Industry

This course/workshop is based on the PMI PMBOK[®] Guide, Current Program/Project Management Theory, and Industry Best Practices and includes: Up to 40 participants in workshop format; Project Management Institute (PMI) Project Management Body of Knowledge PMBOK[®] Guide (ANSI Standard); Workshop Handouts; Exercises; and a PMP certified, knowledgeable, and professionally experienced instructor. Fee: Please call for pricing. GSA pricing is available for government clients. Location can be on-site at client facilities or at a facility offsite.

Course content includes:

- PMI PMBOK[®] Guide five PM processes and nine knowledge areas
- PPM ANSI Standard based industry best practices
- Business Case Development and OMB 300 for government offerings
- Performance Measurement and Earned Value Methodology (EVM)
- Leadership and Team Building
- Cases tailored to the client and the business focus

The Dayton Group, Inc. (TDG), 7333 Paragon Road, Suite 150, Dayton, Ohio 45459-4157
Contact: Warren Opfer ~ 937-433-2269 ~ waopfer@TheDaytonGroup.com
800-642-1627 ~ 937-433-2269 ~ www.TheDaytonGroup.com